The Holy Trinity

Pierre Mignard, 1663 | Dome fresco
Notre-Dame du Val-de-Grace Paris, France

Of all the great feasts we celebrate within the Church throughout the year, this Solemnity presents us with a Mystery that is so deep and transcendent that our eternity will be spent in perpetual contemplation. The Trinity, the life of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, will never get old, never be fully understood, and will be the cause of our everlasting adoration and joy. Though the Church has used philosophical concepts to explain the Trinity, no human concept or description will ever fully explain Who God is. Though we can point to some general truths about God, we will never be able to fully depict the inner essence, depth, beauty and omnipotence of the Trinity.

Prayer often begins by saying prayers, by meditating upon Scripture, and by listening. But true prayer is something much deeper. True prayer is contemplative prayer that ultimately leads to divine union. Only God can initiate this form of prayer in our lives, and only God, through this deep form of prayer, can communicate Himself to us as He is. Some of the greatest mystics of our Church, such as Saint John of the Cross and Saint Teresa of Ávila, explain in their mystical theology that the deepest knowledge of God does not come through concepts or images. In fact, if we wish to obtain a knowledge of God in His essence, we must allow Him to purge every concept of Who He is so that the pure light of His essence can be poured forth upon our minds. This knowledge, they say, is beyond knowing "about" God. It's the beginning of a knowledge "of" God.

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, please draw me into a relationship of love with You Who are one God and three divine Persons. May the mystery and beauty of Your life become more known and loved by me each day through the gift of transforming mystical prayer. Jesus, I trust in You.

Love in the Kitchen A Recipe for Holiness

The dinner table and the kitchen aren't just for making memories: they are where saints are created. Celebrating 30 years of international child sponsorship, Chalice is inviting everyone from aspiring chefs to those who just like to eat, or enjoy a drink, to our free online event. Cook a meal live, alongside celebrity chef, Fr. Leo Patalinghug, and ask author Rita Heikenfeld a question about biblical foods during the Corpus Christi weekend, June 18-19. Through their insights, you'll discover why our Catholic faith should have a place at every meal.

Register today at chaliceevents.org/love-in-the-kitchen.
